Vienna, November 28. N. S.

Signior Lorenzo Tiepolo, Ambaſſador in Ordinary from the Republick of Venice to the Imperial Court, made his Publick Entry here on the 22d Inſtant. The Seaſon of the Year being far advanced, he did not begin his Entry at the uſual diſtance from the Town, but was received in the Suburbs, at the Convent of the Minims, by Count Martinitz, Great Mareſchal of the Court, with two of the Emperor's Coaches, accompanied by the Coaches of the chief Nobility and Miniſters of the Court. In this manner the Ambaſſador was conducted thro' the Town to his own Houſe; where he was taken up next Morning by Count Caraffa, Gentleman of the Bed chamber to his Imperial Majeſty, with two of the Emperor's Coaches, and conducted to hi Publick Audiences of the Court, with the uſual Ceremonies. The Abbot Santini, the Pope's Auditor reſiding at this Court, is returned from Presburg, whither he went to execute a Commiſſion from his Maſter to the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeitz. Three Deputies are arrived here from the Lutherans in Sileſia, to ſettle with this Court the Places where they are to build the ſix Churches, which his Imperial Majeſty has lately granted them, at the Requeſt of the King of Sweden. We hear from Hungary, that Prince Ragotzi has called an Aſſembly of his Followers at Caſchaw; but we do not yet know what Reſolutions they have taken. The Marquis of Obizzi, Governor of this Town, and one of his Imperial Majeſty's Privy Counſellors, died here Yeſterday. Prince Emanuel of Savoy, who came hither with the News of the Duke of Savoy's Succeſſes on the Frontiers of Dauphiné, is returned to Turin. Mr. Weyberg, the King of Denmark's Envoy to this Court, arrived here Yeſterday, to notify to the Emperor his Daniſh Majeſty's Journey thro' the Empire, and thro' ſome parts of the Hereditary Countries of the Houſe of Auſtria to Venice. This Miniſter intends to follow the King his Maſter in a few Days.

Berne, December 1. N. S. Our laſt Letters from Milan ſay, that Ferrara, as well as Bologna, Faenza, and ſeveral other Places in the Pope's Territories, had received the Imperial Troops; and that Rome it ſelf was in a Tumult, and threatened to follow the ſame Example, if the Pope did not ſoon enter into an Accommodation with the Emperor. We hear from Alſatia, that the Duke of Berwick left the Army in Flanders on the 16th of the laſt Month; and that he was expected at Strasburg on the 21ſt. Letters from Spain ſay, that the Duke of Orleans had with great Difficulty been perſwaded to go to Madrid, before he went to Verſailles; and that it is believed he will quit the Command of the Army in Spain.

Berlin, December 1. N. S. On the 24th of the laſt Month the King and Queen dined and ſupped in Publick, at Oranienberg. The next Day his Majeſty returned hither. On the 26th the Queen came from Oranienberg to Schonhauſen. On the 27th, about two in the Afternoon, the King met her on the Road to this Town, into which they made a magnificent Entry; their Majeſties ſitting together, and the Princeſs ſitting backwards in the ſame Coach. The Queen's own Coach followed empty. The Prince-Royal, attended by all the Gentlemen of this Court, rode on Horſeback before his Majeſty's Coach. When their Majeſties came to the Palace, the Britiſh Ambaſſador made his Compliments to the Queen, and was the only foreign Miniſter received that Evening. On the 28th the King and Queen went in Proceſſion, each of them under a Canopy of State, to the Great Church, which was adorned on this Occaſion with the utmoſt Magnificence. After the Biſhop had joined their Hands, and pronounced his Benediction on the Marriage, the Court returned to the Caſtle, while all the Cannon and ſmall Shot were firing in three ſucceſſive Rounds. Their Majeſties ſupped that Evening in great State. After Supper, their Majeſties, the Prince and Princeſs-Royal, with all the chief Officers of State, and Perſons of the firſt Quality, performed the uſual Ceremony of moving with lighted Flamboys in their Hands round the Hall of the Palace, to a Meaſure of Muſick made for the Occaſion. After which the whole Court waited on their Majeſties to the Queen's Bed-chamber, and took their Leave. On the 29th all the Deputies and Miniſters of State made their Compliments of Congratulation to the King and Queen in their particular Apartments. The Deputies of the Provinces made their Preſents, to the value of 100000 Crowns. This Court and City appear in the greateſt Joy imaginable, and are preparing Publick Diverſions in Honour of his Majeſty's Marriage. We have received a further confirmation of the Advantage gain'd by the Muſcovites over the Swedes, under the Command of General Lewenhaupt, in which the latter loſt 3000 Men in the Field of Battel, beſides thoſe who were killed in the Retreat.

From the Camp at Beirleghem, December 10. N. S. Yeſterday Morning the Duke of Marlborough had an Account from Prince Eugene, that upon our Batteries being ready to fire upon the Body of the Citadel on Saturday the 8th Inſtant, the Mareſchal de Boufflers had that Morning beat a Parley; that Hoſtages were thereupon exchanged; and that, at the coming away of the Expreſs, it was agreed one of the Gates ſhould be delivered to the Prince yeſterday. His Grace is in hourly expectation of receiving from his Highneſs the Articles of Surrender. To Morrow his Grace will march, with the Army under his Command, and inveſt Ghent on the ſide of Bruſſels. Lieutenant-General Dedem, with his Detachment, and 10 Battalions that are ordered to join him, is to do the like between the Lys and the Schelde. Count Hompeſch is to take Poſt with his Troops between the Lys and the Canal, and Major-General Murray on the other ſide the Country of Waes. The French Army continues encamped behind the Scarp, between Valenciennes and Doway. The Princes, according to our laſt Advices, were ſtill with the Army, having reinforced the Body of Troops commanded by Monſieur de Cheladet.

Bruſſels, December 10. N. S. An Expreſs which arrived here yeſterday in the Evening from Liſle, brings Advice, That the Mareſchal of Boufflers beat a Parley for the Citadel on the 8th in the Morning, when Hoſtages were exchanged on both ſides. Thoſe gone into the Citadel are Brigadier Wartenſleben, Lieutenant-Colonel Hamilton, and Major Runk; and the Brigadier Comte de Bellile, Lieutenant-Colonel Charade, and Major Bouſſy, are ſent into the Town from the Enemies, with the Articles of the Capitulation, which are expected every Moment. Major-General Cadogan, with three of the Dutch Deputies from the Army, being come hither on the 7th to concert ſome neceſſary Meaſures for the Reduction of Ghent, are returned to the Camp at Beirleghem.
